Conditions of Play for WP Competitions

A. League Championships (Men, Ladies & Trips League)

a. Entries and Structure

- i. The Men's league is known as Flag and entries are open to any number of Sides from a Club limited by the number of Divisions or Sections in the competition. Each club can have one side in Premier League and two sides in each Section (if there are more than one Section in a Division) or Division (where there is only one Section per Division).
- ii. The Women's League is known as Muter and entries are open to any number of Sides from a Club limited by the number of Divisions or Sections in the competition. Each club can have one side in Premier League and two sides in each Division (there will only be one Section per Division).
- iii. Each Club that may enter more than six Sides per green for all league competitions combined do so on the understanding that the additional Side or Sides, if accepted, may be required to play most of their matches away from home.
- iv. For Flag and all Divisions other than Premier, sides in a Division shall be placed in Sections at the sole discretion of the Executive so that the Sides are evenly distributed between the Sections based on the relative performance of the Sides in the previous season.
- v. Each Side shall play every other Side on a league basis. Where a club has two Sides in the same Section, these two Sides will play each other in the first round of the competition.
- vi. The number of rounds in a league or knockout basis in the last Division shall not be less than seven or more than nine. The format of play for the last Division shall be either a single or double round, depending on the number of Sides.
- vii. Should a club enter the competition for the first time, or in the case of an amalgamation of two or more clubs, the Executive shall have the sole discretion to decide in which Divisions they are placed.

b. Flag and Muter Championships

- i. Sides shall consist of two teams of four players each, all players being members of the same Club. A captain shall be appointed for each Side.
- ii. The Premier Division shall consist of ten Sides with no Club being represented by more than one Side.
- iii. For Flag all Divisions, except for the Premier and last Division (depending on the number of Sides in this Division), shall be divided into two Sections of ten Sides each.
- iv. Muter will not be played in Sections but will be divided into Divisions of ten Sides in each Division. There will only be one Section per Division.
- v. The format of play in each game will be 2-bowl Fours.
- vi. Each game will consist of three sets of seven ends.

c. Trips League Championship

- i. Entries are open to any number of Sides from a Club limited by the number of Divisions or Sections in the competition. Each club can have one Side in Premier League and two Sides in each other Division. There will be only one Section per Division.

- ii. Depending on the number of Sides entered, the League shall be divided into Divisions with eight Sides in each Division. The last Division may consist of fewer teams.
- iii. Sides shall consist of two teams of three players each, all being members of the same Club, playing 3-bowl trips. Sides can comprise six players in any gender combination. A captain shall be appointed for every Side entered.
- iv. The format of play in each game will be 3-bowl Triples.
- v. Each game will consist of three sets of six ends.
- vi. Depending on the number of Sides entered, the League shall be divided into Divisions with eight Sides in each Division. The last Division may consist of fewer teams.

d. Scoring

- i. The winner of a set will be the team with the most shots during the set and will score one point. If the shots are equal in a set, the set point will be shared.
- ii. The team with a higher aggregate of shots for than shots against at the completion of the game also scores two aggregate points. If the aggregate shots for and against are equal, the aggregate points are shared.
- iii. A maximum of five points can be scored by a team in a game.
- iv. Sides with a higher aggregate of shots for than shots against also score two aggregate points. If the aggregate shots for and against are equal, the aggregate points are shared.
- v. A maximum of twelve points can be scored by a Side in a game.

e. Defaults

The following shall apply in the event of default:

- i. If a team in a Side fails to play or complete a match, the opposing team shall be awarded five points (no shots for or against to be recorded).
- ii. If a team in a Side fails to play or complete a match, the opposing Side shall be awarded the two aggregate points.
- iii. If more than one team in a Side fails to play or complete a match, the Side shall be adjudged to have withdrawn from the championship.

f. Order of Play

- i. At the start of the game, the winner of the toss shall decide whether to take the mat and deliver the jack or let the other side play first.
- ii. At the start of the second and third set, the winner of the previous set must take the mat and deliver the jack. If the set is drawn, the winner of the last scoring end in that set must take the mat and deliver the jack.
- iii. At the start of any other end the winner of the previous end must take the mat and deliver the jack.

g. Scorecards and Declaration Forms

- i. To ensure proper control of results Clubs shall use the stationery supplied by the District for the purpose of recording names of players comprising their sides and the result of completed matches.
- ii. Clubs may use their own declaration forms provided that the format is the same as the prescribed form.

- iii. Scorecards and Match Declaration Forms shall be retained by Clubs until one month after the completion of the Competition each year.
- iv. Results shall be captured directly on the bowlsdraw.co.za website by the Club as soon as the match has been completed.

h. Interchange of players within Flag and Muter

- i. A Club that has more than one Side in the same Division, but in different Sections may interchange a maximum of two players between these Sides before the commencement of any match.
- ii. A Club that has more than one Side in the same Section may NOT interchange ANY players between these two Sides for the duration of the league season.
- iii. Sides may not include more than two players from a higher Division each week.
- iv. A maximum of two players can go down each week to a lower Division, unless they have previously played in the lower Division. All affected Sides will have 5 points deducted from their accumulated points for each infringement of this rule.
- v. In the last two rounds of Divisional play and knock-out rounds, a maximum of two players may be interchanged to a lower Division and only if they have previously played at least one match in that Division.
- vi. Players interchanged contrary to the above shall be deemed to be ineligible.
- vii. A Side which includes an ineligible player in any of its teams during league play shall forfeit the match and have five points deducted from its accumulated points scored in all matches in which the ineligible player played. The opposing Side shall be credited with points earned and actual shots scored in the match.

i. Interchange of players: Trips League and Flag or Muter

- i. No players who have played in any matches for a club's Premier or First Division Flag or Muter sides, may be included in any of the Club's (or another Club's) Trips League Sides for the rest of the season. This clause does not apply to Clubs which do not have any Sides entered in a Flag/Muter Division below first Division.
- ii. For any matches played on a Saturday, no more than two players may be moved from the Flag or Muter squad of players to the Trips League squad of players. For the last two rounds of Trips League matches, no players may be moved from the Flag and Muter squads to the Trips League squad, unless they have played in the Trips League Sides for the Club earlier in the same season.
- iii. For any Flag or Muter matches played on a Sunday, any eligible player from the Trips League Sides will be allowed to play in any Flag or Muter Sides for the same Club and return to their Trips League Sides for the next rounds of Trips League matches. Note that Point i (above) will still apply.
- iv. A Club that has more than one Side in the same Section may NOT interchange ANY players between these two Sides for the duration of the league season.
- v. Players interchanged contrary to the above shall be deemed to be ineligible.

j. Reserves & Substitutes

- i. Only reserves as stated on the Declaration Form on the day of play may play.

k. Division Winners

- i. The winning Sides of each Section of a Division will play one another to determine the Division winner. If, after 21 ends, the Sides are tied on points and shots, extra end/s will be played by both teams in the Side until a shots result is achieved.

l. Promotion and Relegation: Flag and Muter

- i. The winners of each Section in the First Division shall be promoted to the Premier League, provided that such Club is not already represented therein. If a Club is already represented in the Premier League, the following will apply:
 - a) If one of the Division 1 Section winners already has a Side in the Premier League, the second placed team in that Section will play a promotion relegation match against the ninth placed Side in the Premier League to determine which side will play in the Premier League in the next season. The other Section winner that does not have a Side in the Premier League, will get promoted and the tenth placed team in the Premier League will get relegated to the first Division.
 - b) If both Division 1 Section winners already have a Side in the Premier League, the Section winner with the highest total points will play a promotion relegation match against the tenth place Premier League Side and the other Section winner will play a promotion relegation match against the ninth placed Premier League Side.
 - c) If both the Section winner and the second placed team in that Section already have a side in the Premier League, no team from that Section will be promoted and the ninth placed Side in the Premier League will NOT be relegated.
 - d) If the second placed Sides in the First Division Sections BOTH already have a Side in the Premier Division, no Sides will be promoted and no Sides will be relegated.
- ii. Subject to the above, the last two Sides in the Premier Division shall be relegated to the First Division.
- iii. The winners and runners-up of each Section of the following Divisions shall be promoted to the next higher Division.
- iv. The Sides finishing last and second last in each Section shall be relegated to the next lower Division.

m. Trips League

- i. The winners and runners-up of each Division shall be promoted to the Division above them.
- ii. The Sides finishing last and second last in each Division shall be relegated to the Division below them.

L. Pro-10 Pairs

a. Entries and Structure

- i. There are no gender requirements or restrictions for this championship and each team may contain any gender mix.
- ii. The first rounds of sectional play in this competition will be zoned to limit the impact of traffic on players. Teams can enter in any zone of their choice. Zoning may be adjusted, or zones combined depending on the number of entries received per zone. Where required to balance sections, the WPBA Competitions Secretary in consultation with the Executive may need to move teams to another zone than indicated in the entry.
- iii. Teams shall be drawn into sections of four and will play on a league basis.
- iv. The players that enter the competition and finished in the last 16 of the previous year's tournament shall be seeded and allocated to sections according to their seedings. However, only the Skip carries the seeding for all competitions other than Singles. Seeded players shall not be drawn to play other seeded players in the round robin stage of the competition.
- v. Depending on the number of entries, section winners will move to the next round of knockout play.
- vi. Play will be on a Tuesday evening. Two or three games will be played each evening, starting at 18:00, 19:00 and 20:00.
- vii. No trial ends will be played.
- viii. A time limit of 50 minutes per game will apply. Ends not completed will be scored 5 points to each team.
- ix. For all burnt ends, the jack will be placed on the center line two metre mark and play continues.
- x. One reserve may be specified per team but must appear on the club entry form for the competition. No other reserves will be permitted once the competition has started. Teams that are not able to play will be withdrawn from the competition.

b. Format of Play

- i. The format of play in each game will be 2-bowl Pairs.
- ii. Scoring on each end shall be on a 4-3-2-1 basis, with the bowl nearest the jack scoring 4 points, the second closest 3 points, the third closest 2 points and the fourth closest 1 point.
- iii. The team with the bowl closest to the jack shall take the mat on the next end.
- iv. All games shall be played over 10 ends.
- v. Section winners will be the team that scores the most total points over all games played.

c. Trophies and Prizes
